

WHAT COUPLES SAY ABOUT PME COURSES

"Being non-religious, I was a little anxious at the prospect of being lectured at, but it wasn't the case. Really interesting to hear the scientific evidence about relationships."

"I thought the course was well thought out, well presented and certainly gave my fiancé and I very useful information to discuss and skills for the future."

"Very practical, relevant, modern discussion and information. Would recommend this course to anyone getting married, even if not in the Catholic Church."

WHAT IS PRE-MARRIAGE EDUCATION?

IT'S PLANNING FOR YOUR MARRIAGE, NOT JUST YOUR WEDDING.

Marriage is good for you! Healthy marriages are good for your physical and emotional health and wellbeing, your finances, your career, your children and for society as a whole. However, love in itself is not enough to overcome the inevitable tough patches that all marriages encounter. Research suggests that shared expectations of marriage, and skills and strategies discussed and practiced during Pre-Marriage Education Courses can assist marriages to thrive.

Centacare offers two programs for couples seeking Pre-Marriage Education – please choose the one that most suits your individual couple needs.

FOCCUS IS MOST SUITED TO COUPLES WHO:

- are able to speak openly about their relationship with a facilitator in private sessions
- are entering a second marriage
- already have children
- older couples
- are able to attend three or four sessions during the week
- have English as a second (non-preferred) language.

THE PRE-MARRIAGE EDUCATION GROUP COURSE IS MOST SUITED TO COUPLES WHO:

- prefer to attend a Saturday course
- want to complete all the course discussions and activities during the program itself
- prefer to have their couple discussions without a facilitator directly involved
- enjoy meeting other engaged couples
- have less than two months left before their wedding day.
