

5TH SUNDAY
LENT
YR C 2022
3 APRIL

The Parish of St James
Coorparoo
A Vibrant, Prayerful, Inclusive
Augustinian Parish
Archdiocese of Brisbane

Pre-Summit Week 6, Social Justice.

St James is continuing on a path to becoming an even more alive, authentic and missionary parish and we know that each parishioner has a role to play, has talents to offer and ideas that matter. Evangelisation Brisbane is helping our parish to address the six key mission fields that we have identified for growth. These mission fields will be explored and cultivated at the Parish Summit on 30th of April from 9am - 1pm, and you are invited to come and be part of this opportunity to shape the future of St James. Please take home a Parish Summit flyer and register to attend today!

We have been so grateful for your presence with us on this journey so far. This is the sixth and final mission field this week, and the theme is Social Justice. This is a mission theme that speaks to our calling as Christians to shine the light of the Gospel into the wounds and injustices of our times. How do we, as St James parishioners, seek to improve the lot of the vulnerable and the marginalised in our midst, and at the peripheries? How can we do this better? How do we leave

Mass and carry Jesus out to the world, our bodies becoming living tabernacles that convey the mercy and love of our unfathomable God to those who most need Him? This is a mission field where no dream is too big - so what is your dream for how this mission can be lived authentically at St James? We'd love to hear your thoughts. Please do take the time to complete the survey - the last survey we'll ask you to complete for a long time!

How about you,
what is your dream
for Social Justice
ministry
here at St James?

This Sunday's Readings

5th Sunday Lent (Year C/2)

First Reading Isaiah 43: 16-21

Thus says the Lord, who made a way through the sea, a path in the great waters; who put chariots and horse in the field and a powerful army which lay there never to rise again, snuffed out, put out like a wick: No need to recall the past, no need to think about what was done before. See, I am doing a new deed, even now it comes to light; can you not see it? Yes, I am making a road in the wilderness, paths in the wilds. The wild beasts will honour me, jackals and ostriches, because I am putting water in the wilderness (rivers in the wild) to give my chosen people drink. The people I have formed for myself will sing my praises.

Today's Psalm 125(126) The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

When the Lord delivered Zion from bondage, it seemed like a dream. Then was our mouth filled with laughter, on our lips there were songs.	The heathens themselves said: 'What marvels the Lord worked for them!' What marvels the Lord worked for us! Indeed we were glad.	Deliver us, O Lord, from our bondage as streams in dry land. Those who are sowing in tears will sing when they reap.	They go out, they go out, full of tears, carrying seed for the sowing: they come back, they come back, full of song, carrying their sheaves.

Second Reading Philippians 3: 8-14

I believe nothing can happen that will outweigh the supreme advantage of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For him I have accepted the loss of everything, and I look on everything as so much rubbish if only I can have Christ and be given a place in him. I am no longer trying for perfection by my own efforts, the perfection that comes from the Law, but I want only the perfection that comes through faith in Christ, and is from God and based on faith. All I want is to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and to share his sufferings by reproducing the pattern of his death. That is the way I can hope to take my place in the resurrection of the dead. Not that I have become perfect yet: I have not yet won, but I am still running, trying to capture the prize for which Christ Jesus captured me. I can assure you my brothers, I am far from thinking that I have already won. All I can say is that I forget the past and I strain ahead for what is still to come; I am racing for the finish, for the prize to which God calls us upwards to receive in Christ Jesus.

Gospel Reading John 8: 1-11

Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. At daybreak he appeared in the Temple again; and as all the people came to him, he sat down and began to teach them.

The scribes and Pharisees brought a woman along who had been caught committing adultery; and making her stand there in full view of everybody, they said to Jesus, 'Master, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery, and Moses has ordered us in the Law to condemn women like this to death by stoning. What have you to say?' They asked him this as a test, looking for something to use against him. But Jesus bent down and started writing on the ground with his finger. As they persisted with their question, he looked up and said, 'If there is one of you who has not sinned, let him be the first to throw a stone at her.' Then he bent down and wrote on the ground again. When they heard this they went away one by one, beginning with the eldest, until Jesus was left alone with the woman, who remained standing there. He looked up and said, 'Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?' 'No one, sir' she replied. 'Neither do I condemn you,' said Jesus 'go away, and do not sin any more.

Project Compassion

Shaniella 23, grew up in a remote village in the Solomon Islands in a province which has limited educational and job opportunities – and one of the country's highest poverty rates. After leaving school, she decided to move closer to the capital city, Honiara, to study hospitality and tourism. However, her vocational training school was hit by a landslide and cyclone in quick succession, destroying its water supply system and the vegetable garden that it relies on for food.

With your generous support, Caritas Australia has helped the school to install water tanks, re-establish its garden and provided training in disaster risk reduction. Shaniella can now complete her job skills training and the school has enough food and water for its students.

Drop Project Compassion 2022 envelopes in the Collection.

You can donate through Project Compassion donation boxes and envelopes available at each church entrance.

St. James Parish acknowledges the Jagera People of Coorparoo as the traditional owners of the land on which we live.
