Fruits of first Plenary Council assembly published

The fruits of the first general assembly of the Fifth Plenary Council of Australia have been gathered together in a new report that contains dozens of proposals to shape the ongoing Council journey.

The Plenary Council members gathered online for the first assembly in October spent much of the week in small groups discerning responses to the 16 agenda questions.

The document capturing the fruits of the first assembly reveals the directions of the small group discernment and offers them as a basis for the ongoing preparation for the second assembly.

"These dozens of pages cannot come close to capturing all that was shared in the assembly, but there is great richness in what is contained, including the many proposals the small groups and individual members have put before us," Plenary Council president Archbishop Timothy Costelloe SDB said.

Archbishop Costelloe said the first assembly was "inspiring, challenging and sometimes unsettling" for the members. The report, as much as possible, "retains the original voice of those who spoke, without attempts to produce a harmonised or homogenous account".

"This is another document in our years-long journey that can help carry forward the hopes of the members of the Council and, indeed, the hopes of the People of God across the country," he said.

A New Year's Prayer

Dear Lord,
Please give me ...
A few friends who understand me and yet remain my friends.
A work to do which has real value, without which the world would feel the poorer...
A mind unafraid to travel, even though the trail be not blazed.
An understanding heart...
A sense of humour.
Time for quiet, silent meditation.
A feeling of the presence of God.
And the patience to wait for the coming of these things,
with the wisdom to know them
when they come.

W. R. Hunt.
