

MOST HOLY TRINITY YR C 2022 12 JUNE

The Parish of St James Coorparoo A Vibrant, Prayerful, Inclusive Augustinian Parish Archdiocese of Brisbane

BRINGING HOME THE GOSPEL

The bedrock of our Christian faith rests on the mystery of the Trinity—our belief in a Triune God, one God in three persons. For years, I categorized to whom I prayed: praise to God, the Father; day-to-day help from my friend, Jesus; and on test days, prayers went directly to the Holy Spirit. There is no problem praying in this way. It just got confusing for me when I began to imagine each person in the Trinity as a sort of individual power beacon. Our human understanding is limited, so when we speak about God, we speak of three persons. But we know there is only one God. The Trinity is not like three signal towers sending out waves of power or grace. God's power is not static; it is dynamic. God is love, a dynamic love that is always in motion, always in relationship—Father, Son and Spirit. The self-revealing mystery of God is like a whirlpool of love, spilling out into and through all of creation, returning in a whirlwind of love. It is in this overflowing, ever-returning circle of love that we find God's power and grace. When we get caught up in that whirlwind, we experience the Spirit of Truth, and begin to know God beyond words or definition. The mystery is not solved; we just get an inkling of our place in it. Keep yourself open to the mystery of our self-revealing God and teach your children to be open, too. We live in an age of instant answers. Encourage your children to explore and discover the mysteries of this earth. But remind them that there are some mysteries that can only be revealed when you allow them to unfold.

Sheepish Question:

What does the eternal presence of Father, Son and Holy Spirit mean to my relationship with God?

This Sunday's Readings

First Reading Proverbs 8: 22-31 Wisdom was born before the earth was made.

The Wisdom of God cries aloud:

The Lord created me when his purpose first unfolded, before the oldest of his works.

From everlasting I was firmly set, from the beginning, before earth came into being.

The deep was not, when I was born, there were no springs to gush with water.

Before the mountains were settled, before the hills, I came to birth, before he made the earth, the countryside, or the first grains of the world's dust.

When he fixed the heavens firm, I was there, when he drew a ring on the surface of the deep, when he thickened the clouds above, when he fixed fast the springs of the deep, when he assigned the sea its boundaries – and the waters will not invade the shore – when he laid down the foundations of the earth,

I was by his side, a master craftsman, delighting him day after day, ever at play in his presence, at play everywhere in his world, delighting to be with the sons of men.

Psalms Psalm 8:4-9 O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

When I see the heavens, the work of your hands, the moon and the stars which you arranged, what is man that you should keep him in mind, mortal man that you care for him?	Yet you have made him little less than a god; with glory and honour you crowned him, gave him power over the works of your hand, put all things under his feet.	All of them, sheep and cattle, yes, even the savage beasts, birds of the air, and fish that make their way through the waters.
---	--	---

Second Reading Romans 5: 1-5 To God through Christ in the love which is poured out through the Spirit.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, by faith we are judged righteous and at peace with God, since it is by faith and through Jesus that we have entered this state of grace in which we can boast about looking forward to God's glory. But that is not all we can boast about; we can boast about our sufferings. These sufferings bring patience, as we know, and patience brings perseverance, and perseverance brings hope, and this hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given us.

Gospel Reading John 16: 12-15 Whatever the Father has is mine. The Spirit will receive what I give and tell you about it.

Jesus said to his disciples:

'I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now.

But when the Spirit of truth comes

he will lead you to the complete truth,

since he will not be speaking as from himself

but will say only what he has learnt;

and he will tell you of the things to come.

He will glorify me,

since all he tells you

will be taken from what is mine.

Everything the Father has is mine;

that is why I said:

All he tells you

will be taken from what is mine.'
