From Bishop Ken Howell

Queensland Health has announced a relaxing of restrictions which will impact places of worship. The following changes will be in effect from 1:00am Friday,

25 June 2021:

Capacity restrictions have been lifted to 3 people per 4 square metres (previously 1 person per 2sq metres). This increase in capacity applies to daily and Sunday Masses, weddings, funerals, and other faith-based activities. Weddings and funerals now share the same capacity limits as Masses.

Physical distancing is to be observed to the extent possible. This means that people should try to distance as much as they can while adhering to the current occupancy restriction of 3 people per 4 square metres.

A second option remains for parishes to make use of 100% of their seating capacity, as long as everyone is ticketed and assigned seats. This would require that parishes allocate exactly how many seats are in each row (perhaps using a sticker to mark each seat) and only issue the amount of tickets up to that seating capacity. Ticketed seating means a person is given a ticket with their seat number on it and will remain (as much as possible) in their allocated seat while at the place of worship.

The restriction on self-service food has been removed. People may make their own cup of tea or coffee and plates of food can be set out on the table for people to help themselves at morning teas or gatherings after Masses. Please ensure that people are able to take a food or drink item without coming into contact with other items or shared utensils.

Effective 9 July the 'Check in QLD App' is required at all Mass centres. All visitors, employees and volunteers will be required to use the QLD App to check-in.

The marshal shall be responsible for ensuring that each visitor has checked-in via the QLD App by viewing the successful check-in screen and keeping a head count to ensure capacity limits are maintained. For those visitors who do not have a smart phone or are unable to connect to the QLD App the marshal must record their contact details including full name, email address, (residential address if email not available) phone number, date and time of visit. These records must be stored securely and retained for at least 56 days.

St. James Parish acknowledges the Jaggera People of Coorparoo as the traditional owners of the land on which we live.

Vinnies Winter Appeal 2021

HELP END THE PAIN OF POVERTY

Every day at the St Vincent de Paul Society, we see that ordinary people are able to make an extraordinary difference in their local communities. We are inspired by the joy of the Gospels and our Catholic social teachings to do things that matter. The spirit to feed, heal, shelter, nurture, and inspire – the power to change lives – is in everyone.

As we enter this winter in the shadow of coronavirus, your commitment to helping those experiencing disadvantage, poverty, loneliness and homelessness is still very much needed and appreciated. If you are able to make a contribution to the Vinnies Winter Appeal, please do so today. Please help us to help others. If you wish to give a financial donation, envelopes for this purpose will be available at the door or on the pews.

ALTERNATIVELY - You may wish to make a direct deposit to:

BRINGING HOME THE GOSPEL

Be Not Afraid

Jesus and the disciples have reached the other side of the sea and find another crowd waiting for them. In this Gospel reading Mark records two more miracles, a woman who has been hemorrhaging for twelve years is cured as well as the daughter of a synagogue official. Both are healed because of their faith.

Once more Jesus tells us, "Don't be afraid; only believe." Why can't I get it? I believe, and truly trust God, but I still worry. How can Jesus possibly expect any parent to live without anxiety? I know that with five grown children and seven grandchildren there always seems to be someone to worry about.

Perhaps the fear Jesus is talking about goes beyond the very human feeling of apprehension or anxiety we experience on a regular basis. After all, fear gets the adrenaline going, and we often need that surge to react appropriately. (Picture yourself and a lion in close proximity.) I'd like to suggest that the fear Jesus is talking about is just the opposite kind of fear—a fear that is debilitating—fear that leaves us hopeless and despondent.

Even the very human Jesus was afraid. Remember his prayer in the Garden of Gethsemane? Luke tells us Jesus sweat blood when he asked his Father to remove the cross that faced him. Now that's fear—quite appropriate human fear. But Jesus did not allow his fear to disable him.

When Jesus was afraid he prayed. He told his Father exactly what he wanted and then handed it over to him—"Not my will but yours be done."

FAMILY RESPONSE

Discuss the different fears family members have. Talk about ways of handling this feeling.

PERSONAL RESPONSE

What are some of your own greatest personal fears? How do you handle worry and anxiety? What do you want to remember from last week? What are you looking forward to next week? What are your concerns?

© Jean Denton flock.pastoralcenter.com

"Do not be afraid; just have faith."

Sheepish Question:

Is there something that I've been afraid to ask of Jesus?

When Jesus prayed in the garden, his burden wasn't taken away, but obviously he received all he needed to get thorough it. Since he was fully human, I expect Jesus was probably still afraid when facing death, but he was able to face his accusers and executioners with dignity and courage. What a great lesson on how to handle our worries and anxieties.

Every day, ordinary men and women in the Archdiocese of Brisbane volunteer for Centacare to go into South East Queensland prisons to provide an integral ministry to people in Correctional Centres. Prisoners are assured by a chaplain's presence that their lives have value, change is possible and Christian hope can be lived, even in the direst of human circumstances. If you would like to know more about the training to provide spiritual and pastoral care in prisons and becoming a lay prison chaplain please contact Centacare: Ph 3324 3193 or email: adminpasmin@bne.catholic.net.au
